

Remember

I remember stormy weather,
you held me through that night.
I remember how the rain fell,
how it glowed through the head lights.
I remember how you kiss,
your lips so soft,
you taste so sweet,
I don't want this to end.
I remember the next morning,
we fell a sleep in the car,
the sun was shining down so hard.
I remember happy,
last year your blood was sappy.
I remember last year,
to bad your not here.
